++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
A wet evening, rain easing overnight to leave clear skies.

This Evening and Tonight:
It will be a wet evening as rain continues to move southeastwards across the region and gradually eases overnight. Becoming drier with clear skies and lighter winds, allowing for some patchy fog and rural frost to develop. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Thursday:
A largely dry day with sunny spells, after any morning mist and fog clears. The odd shower remains possible. Less mild than recent days. Lighter winds with overnight frost. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Early fog clearing Friday to leave a dry and bright day. Staying largely dry this weekend with some sunny intervals. Mild by day but overnight frost possible.
